19th March 2015

Dear Parents

Just a quick note with a few dates of upcoming events to keep you informed about:

- 27th March – We will hold a parade at school with details of this put out in the newsletter next week

- 30th March – Christmas Creek Cross Country will be held details provided in newsletter to follow

- 31st March – The AGM and P&C meeting will be held at 3:15pm. Everyone’s attendance is appreciated

- 1st April – In the morning the LOTE children will be participating in a Japanese cooking day with Miss Mie. Then in the afternoon when Miss B is at school we will hold an Easter Hat Parade for the children to participate in so please start making your hats and bring them along to show everyone on the day!

- Please be advised that there has been a case of school sores in the school. Please check your children over the weekend if sores are found cover them and see a doctor

Lastly, just another reminder that Library and Show and Tell is on a Tuesday now
